

Schools Prepare for Opening

High school registration starts Monday

The Arlington Heights township high school office will open Monday morning for the registration of all students who are expecting to enter school this fall. All students new to the district will have to be registered for classes during the next two weeks as classes will start on Tuesday, September 2.

Most of the eighth grade graduates in the district were registered last spring and also, those high school students who were in attendance last year, but some former students who failed in their work will have to re-register.

All students will have to pay their book rental and activities fees and also draw their textbooks before the opening of school. This can be done during office hours between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. during the next two weeks. The yearly rental fee for textbooks is $3.00 and the activity fee for all athletic and assembly events is $1.

A deposit is required for all keys which are issued in chemistry, clothing and bookkeeping, and these deposits are refunded at the close of the year when the keys are returned.

Combination padlocks are required for all lockers and these can be purchased at the school or elsewhere. Efforts are being made to have the bus companies approved by the state office so that free transportation to Mount Prospect and rural students can be continued. If this can be done each student entitled to this service will be given a transportation card at the time of paying the fees.

Those who need to be registered will find that they can be served with less delay if they do not wait until the last day before coming to the school office.

One week more to pay taxes

There is just one week more for property owners to pay their taxes to their home collectors.

The township collector's offices are all open for the collection of the second installment of the 1940 taxes.

Saturday, Aug. 23, is the last day that payments can be made to the town collectors as all payments must be entered on the tax books in Chicago by Sunday, Aug. 24th.

The local collectors report that collections have been rather slow, due probably to the excessive heat, during which no one has moved around any more than was necessary.

But the taxpayers have one week more to visit their home collectors, the dead line at the town collector's offices is Saturday, Aug. 23rd.

Establish new rates for vehicle tags

Auto owners of Arlington Heights will pay new fees for vehicle tags the coming year. Please note that cars will be placed in one classification and taxed $3.50. Previous fees were from $3 to $5, with the majority paying $4. The new rate will not permit any reduction for early payment and is estimated to bring about the same revenue as in previous years.

Trucks of one ton or less will pay $4 and over a ton will be asked to pay $6.

The customary racing horses will not be shown on the new tags. In place of the horses, there will be a view of either the municipal building or the field house. As Mayor Goedke expressed it, "those horses have been running ten years and have not come in yet."

640 Lbs. of Aluminum in This Pile

Homar J. Byrd (center) is viewing the pile of old aluminum that Arlington Heights people contributed to defense purposes. Mr. Byrd was recently appointed chairman of Arlington Heights Service Organization, to whom will be referred in the future all patriotic appeals and endeavors pertaining to national defense.

The collection of aluminum was the committee's first job. The local boy scout organization cooperated in the collection.

Others are Mayor Goedke, who has received an official receipt from the U. S. treasury department for the metal and Wm. F. Meyer, acting village clerk. The metal, weighing 640 pounds, was transported to Chicago in the municipal truck.

Effingham Picnic Next Sunday

The 13th Annual Picnic for all former Effingham County residents, now living in or around Chicago, will be held at Elm's Inn picnic grove, located at U. S. Rte. 45 and Higgins road (rte. 72) three miles south of Des Plaines, next Sunday, August 17.

These picnics are held each year in August so that all former southern Illinois folks will have an opportunity to meet their old friends and neighbors. Free dancing in the evening. Come early and enjoy a real picnic with your old neighbors. Bring the family and friends for a real day of fun.

Naughty! Naughty!

Officials of the state, county and the village of Morton Grove have received an unsigned letter calling attention to the fact that there are a lot of slot machines in the latter municipality in addition to a book and game house. The author of the letter makes the guess that the protection money reaches the sum of $10,000 to $20,000 a year. He suggests that as the members of the village board are all employed, the money should be turned over to a civic committee to be used for charity and recreational purposes, or for the USO.

Me thinks ye scribe has heard some such suggestion before.

126 pennies spent in taverns helps capture service station thief

Wm. Bauman, who resides in Arlington Heights when he has nothing better to do, is boarding at the county jail serving out a fine of $200 and costs at the rate of $1.50 a day. He had broken into the Sterling Oil Co. service station, at 3 a. m. August 5. His loot was a Harrington-Richard revolver that he threw away and 126 pennies.

It was the spending of the pennies in local taverns that led to his capture by Chief Skoog. He was held in the local jail four days before he confessed and told where he had thrown the gun. The latter, an heirloom, was found by the police and returned to its owner, Mr. Ackerman. Judge Behrens heard the case and issued the sentence of $200 and costs. It is not Bauman's first visit to the county jail.

Work again starts on deep well job

Hope is eternal and Arlington Heights aldermen received new hope Monday evening that the deep well is still in the land of the living. The board gave its permission to the original well contractor that R. M. Shacklee, of Centralia finish the job. The latter has the equipment that will be necessary for the drilling of the well beyond the present 912 foot level. It is expected that a depth to about 1600 feet will be necessary.

Water supply from the other wells is problematical each day and the owner the new well is complete the more relieved will the aldermen and Arlington Heights housewives be.

August draft call

Cook county selective service board No. 1 has received its August draft call. The list of those who will be asked to report has not yet been prepared, but it is announced that it is less than usual.

Public schools open doors September 2

The Public Elementary schools of Arlington Heights, District 25, will open Tuesday morning, September 2, at nine o'clock. The kindergarten will not be in session the first day, but will be open for registration of all new pupils and others who have not previously registered. All children who will be five years old on or before January 31, 1942, will be accepted for kindergarten.

All kindergarten children whose fifth birthdays fall on or before Aug. 1, 1941, will be in the afternoon session, while those whose fifth birthdays fall between August 1, 1941, and Jan. 31, 1942, will come in the morning.

First grade children not previously enrolled in the public school kindergarten will register on Tuesday morning and will be accepted provided their sixth birthday comes on or before January 31, 1942. All children registering in either the kindergarten or the first grade not previously enrolled must present a birth certificate, baptismal certificate, or any other acceptable proof of their date of birth.

On Tuesday school will be in session only during the morning until 11:30 for grades 1 through 8. Children in grades 1 through 6 residing south of the Northwestern Railroad tracks should attend the South school. Those living north of the tracks should enroll at the North school. However, in the event that certain grades in one school or the other are crowded, exceptions to this division will be made.

The school cafeteria will open the second week of school for the convenience of children and parents who live so far from the school that lunch must be brought from home.

The rental system will again be used in providing textbooks and materials to pupils. The fees charged will include the use of materials consumed in regular classroom work with the exception of pens, pencils, scratch paper, etc. In Domestic Science and Manual Training classes pupils will be assessed an additional fee covering the cost of the materials used in their individual projects.

Rental fees for all grades are as follows: Grades 7 and 8, $2 per year; Grades 4, 5 and 6, $1.50 per year; Grades 1, 2 and 3, $1.25 per year. These fees may be paid in full at the beginning of the year or one half may be paid at the first of each semester. Parents who wish to do so may purchase their books through the school office. Those who do provide their own textbooks, however, will be required to pay a small fee for the use of other consumable materials.

Mr. W. F. Vanderbeek will be Acting Superintendent of Schools for the year 1941-42, taking the place of Mr. C. V. Baker, who will be on leave of absence.

Final USO report next week

Due to the vacation of Wm. Gronert, treasurer of the fund, Alderman C. L. Griffith is delaying until next week a full report of money collected for the USO in Arlington Heights. Unless a sudden spurt of interest is shown by the general public, Arlington Heights will miss by several hundred dollars the quota placed by the Chicago organization for the town. Collections to date are $540.

The above amount includes the contributions made by a number of the civic bodies of the town. Contributions from the business district have not yet been fully reported.

Alderman Adam is honored by fellow employees of firm

Nearly a hundred fellow employees of Albert J. Adam, village trustee, surprised him Friday evening and officially welcomed him into the quarter of a century club of the Chicago office of the International Business Machine corporation. The party was held at the Arlington Heights field house. Arrangements were made by the employees. Mr. Adam's fellow members of the village board were invited guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam are on a vacation trip through Wisconsin.

Arlington gets bids on new police car

Bids were opened Monday night at a special meeting of the Arlington Heights village board for a new police car in the lower price bracket. Local Plymouth and Ford dealers offered cars in the neighborhood of $400 plus the present car. Final action will be taken by the board Monday night.

August 15 last day to register for Sept. 13 election

Randolph street evening market to be opened

City of Chicago bows to truckers and farmers wishes

Through the combined efforts of the Cook County Truck Gardeners and Farmers Association and the Cook County Farm Bureau, who have been working for evening marketing hours on West Randolph Street Market, success has at last been achieved.

Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago has announced that the Market would open evenings sometime this week. At this time the hours are not known, but will be announced as soon as they are available.

The evening market problem has troubled the growers for the past three seasons and it was through the efforts of a special committee of members of the two Farmers organizations that an evening market was again obtained. Walter F. Sass, chairman of this special committee is to be commended for his untiring efforts in behalf of this evening Market problem.

'Witch' Story Frightens Some Arlington Mothers

Two hundred years ago there were a lot of grownups in the American colonies who believed in witches. Today there are a few witches in Arlington Heights who are just as glib as were the witch believers of Boston and Salem during the 1700's.

In the earlier days those suspected of witchcraft were hung. Today the sons and daughters of those mothers who believe the "1941 witch story" are being deprived of the privileges of the swimming pool.

This has all come about because somebody told somebody else over their back fence that those who use the Arlington Heights swimming pool are exposed to infantile paralysis.

The circulation of the story has cut swimming pool attendance from 600 a day to the neighborhood of 150. If season tickets had not been issued, the park board, due to reduced receipts, would feel justified in closing the pool.

Danger of a new infection from the pool is less today than at any time since it was placed in operation. County health officials upon whom rest the responsibility of swimming pool inspection are making very frequent inspections of all pools in Cook county. At a suggestion on their part a small solution of copper sulphate is added regularly to all pools as an additional precautionary safeguard against disease of any kind.

Dr. Cyshek, head of the health department of Cook County Public Welfare, issued the following statement Wednesday: "No case of infantile paralysis in Cook county has been traced to swimming pools. In fact, traces of such disease have never been found in any swimming pool. All cases of infantile paralysis are reported to this office. We are continually making tests in our laboratories and investigate every known case of the disease."

"Our recent suggestion that no person be allowed to spend more than two hours in a pool was solely for the purpose of safeguarding individuals against their own folly of over exertion, especially among those who dive."

"Arlington Heights pool was given an A rating by the state the first year it opened. Frequent inspections are made and Arlington still has that rating, which fact ought to settle all doubts as to the purity of the pool, the manner it is operated and the policy of the park board."

When advised of the wild infantile paralysis rumors circulated around Arlington Heights, Dr. Cyshek concluded, "It is too bad that in this enlightened age, such rumors would be given credence by mothers. I hope the publication of the facts given to you will correct any wrong impressions that Arlington Heights mothers may have regarding the safety of your pool."

Thus ends "witchcraft" in Arlington Heights in the days of August, 1941.

Children's field day

The seventy-five children who are taking part in the summer-time playground activities at Recreation park this summer will participate in a field day Wednesday, August 27. The recreation committee has arranged a full program with the presentation of the awards in the evening when parents can be present. See next week's paper for full details.

Henry Nichols is also candidate for clerk

Henry Nichols was the last man to file his petition for village clerk, which means there will be six seeking the office of village clerk at the special election to be held on Sept. 13.

Superintendent Baker to leave for Harvard Sept. 5

C. V. Baker, superintendent of public schools in Arlington Heights, will leave for Harvard university September 5. Granted a year's leave of absence by board of education for study, Mr. Baker recently returned from a plane trip to Massachusetts where he made final arrangements for a home for himself and family near the graduate school at Cambridge.

Superintendent Baker will not be giving up his title when he goes east. When Lincoln, Mass., about 10 miles from Cambridge, appealed to Harvard university for a highly qualified superintendent to undertake the modernizing of their school system, Harvard authorities promptly recommended Mr. Baker for the job. While some mornings will be spent at the school the majority of the time will be spent in graduate study of Elementary Education in preparation for a Doctor of Education degree.

While Mr. Baker is away for a year, Mr. Vanderbeek will be acting superintendent of the public schools. Announcement was made this week that Miss Mary Kadel, teacher of the second grade in the north school, has resigned her position here and will teach at Sterling, Illinois, in her home community.

Father J. A. O'Brien to speak at Arlington

Rev. Father John A. O'Brien, who was one of the speakers at Chicago arena Wednesday with Senator Nye, will appear for the second time on the platform of the Arlington Heights field house Friday evening at eight o'clock. His subject will be "Government from Washington or London?"

Rev. O'Brien won many personal friends as well as friends to the "America First" cause when he spoke here a few weeks ago. All who heard him at that time will desire to hear him a second time. Arlington Heights chapter is arranging these meetings as their part in continuing the fight to keep America out of war. "One of the results of our campaign," states Mr. Geo. Glow, "is evidenced by the close vote on the draft extension in Congress this week. We are being heard in Washington. Let us keep up the effort."

Supt. Luehring used big card to send greetings to officials

Wm. Luehring, superintendent of water works, street commissioner and custodian of the municipal building, solved the postcard problem when on his vacation by using a huge postcard to extend his vacation greetings to all village officials and employees. The card, which was mailed at Duluth and is signed only "W. W." is posted in "the police reception room" at the station, where each one interested can accept his particular share of the greetings.

When Will returns next week he will find a bit of improvement. Three wicker chairs that were formerly in the nurse's room are now part of the furniture in the reception room which give a homey touch that will no doubt be appreciated by police guests.

They have already proven to be popular among the board members awaiting the call to order by Mayor Goedke.

Mt. Prospect village and rural firemen in joint carnival

The rural and village fire departments of Mt. Prospect promise a big evening for their friends who attend their annual carnival and dance which will be held at Ehrhardt's grove, on route 62 and Touhy ave., Park Ridge Saturday, Aug. 16. The usual carnival attractions will be found at this grove and in addition the local firemen will operate their various games and the dance floor. Gilbert Harmony Boys will furnish the music for the dancing. Dance tickets are 35c a person.

Proceeds of the events will be used for equipment for the use of the two departments. Residents of Mt. Prospect and adjoining rural territory have excellent fire protection and should patronize the firemen as this is the only way they have to raise funds to keep their equipment on a par with neighboring towns.

WGN will broadcast Christian Science service, Sunday

The broadcast of the Sunday service of Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, of Chicago, will be presented on the Chicagoand Church Hour over Station WGN, Chicago, on Sunday morning, August 17, 9 o'clock.

60-piece St. Mary's band will give evening concert

Hundreds of Kiwanians and their families are expected to visit Camp Reinberg, northwest of Palatine on Sunday afternoon and evening, when the first of twenty Kiwanian cabins will be dedicated by Senator Roos. Kiwanis woods will eventually have for the boys a replica of the modern girls camp, three units of which are completed. There are twelve cabins and three recreational halls in use at this time.

The fifth group is now at camp Reinberg, comprising 740 children. The general public is invited to the evening programs which are held each evening except upon the day between camp periods. The program of the coming week is:

Aug. 18—WLS program in charge of Mrs. Rainey.
Aug. 19—Masquerade ball (closing night).

A somewhat similar schedule starts Thursday night, August 21, when the last group of the season will be in camp. Through the interest of Dr. Piszcek, of the county welfare department and whose summer home is near, Camp Reinberg secures the use of a moving picture machine and sound equipment from the state. A series of moving pictures go with the machine.

The tentative program for the balance of the month includes a return visit of the Alberti 45-piece band Sunday, August 24th. A group of 15 CYO young ladies will present a one act comedy, "Make Up and Live."

An open house for members of the county board is expected to be held August 27.

MERLE GUILD POST NO. 208 AMERICAN LEGION NEWS

Merle Guild Post of the American Legion as an Americanism exponent believes that the following article will prove to be of especial interest to readers of this paper, because it gives a detailed description of the Statue of Liberty, one of our greatest American Emblems. It should be of especial interest to school students.

The Statue of Liberty, which stands on Bedloe's or Liberty Island in the upper bay of New York Harbor, was presented to the United States by France in 1884, but was not unveiled until 1886. It symbolizes the friendship between the two republics, the freedom and brotherhood of the republican form of government, both of which France so recently has lost.

This colossal statue is of bronze, executed by Frederick A. Bartholdi, 1834-1904. It is of a proud woman, clad in graceful robes which fall in generous folds. In her left hand is a tablet on which the date of the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776, is inscribed in Roman numerals. Her right hand holds a torch. There is a diadem on her head. The sculptor is said to have moulded the face after that of his mother. The great iron skeleton inside of the figure was designed by Eiffel, who built the famous Eiffel Tower in Paris.

This statue formerly was used as a light house at nights. The arm holding the torch eventually became weakened from the pressure of footsteps of people climbing to its top. The stairway necessarily had to be closed; persons no longer are permitted to go higher than the diadem.

The cost of the statue was $250,000; it is the largest statue ever erected, and stands 151 feet one inch high above its foundation. The height from the bottom of the foundation to the feet of the statue is 305 feet six inches. The total weight is 450,000 pounds. The head will hold forty persons. There are 161 steps from her pedestal to her crown.

The Statue of Liberty commands a magnificent view of the harbor, the City of New York, of Jersey

Neck is dislocated as swimmer dives in shallow water

Although he suffered a dislocated vertebra in his neck when he dove into two feet of water at Lake Zurich, Leonard Hodgins of Oak Park is expected to live to talk about it.

Hodgins, 40 years old, was injured Sunday when he dove from a pier near the northeast corner of the lake. Partly paralyzed by the injury, he was saved from drowning by other swimmers, given first aid, then rushed to Sherman hospital in Elgin.

An X-ray examination revealed the extent of the dislocation. He was in considerable shock when admitted to the hospital, but attending physicians believe he will recover.

City and of many New Jersey suburbs. An elevator rises from the ground level to the foot of the statue; a winding stairway leads to the head. The statue is illuminated at night. In 1924 it was created a national monument.

The actual inscription on the statue is the following: "Give me your tired, your poor, Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, The wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"

Admission to the statue is free. Hundreds of thousands visit there each year. Boats run hourly between New York and the Island (which now is occupied by Fort Wood), leaving at 9 a. m. and on the hour thereafter until and including 5 p. m.

33RD DIVISION MOTHERS' NOTES

Don't forget the card party at the Arlington Heights Field House, Thursday, Aug. 21, at 8 p. m. Come and bring your friends. Donation 25 cents.

33rd Division mothers and friends are all invited to attend a picnic at Riverview Park, August 23. Come and get acquainted with other mothers and friends of boys in camp.

Mrs. E. B. Dearie, chairman of the local unit, attended a district luncheon at the Palmer House, Monday afternoon. Despite the absence of the president, Mrs. Coleman, who is in the hospital due to injuries sustained in an automobile accident, it was a very interesting meeting. There were about 35 mothers in attendance, and this included mothers from Ottawa, Kan., and Rockford, Ill. It was announced there would be a booth provided for Arlington Heights at the picnic at Riverview on August 23. All proceeds from sales at this booth will go to the local unit for their own work.

Many boys have written in to thank the club for the boxes which were sent them a few weeks ago. The following letter which was among those received, shows the appreciation of the boys who receive these boxes of small luxuries.

Dear Ladies:
The writer wishes to thank you from the bottom of his heart for the beautiful package sent him, containing shoe polish, soap, cookies and other items so badly needed by selectees in the army today.

It was the finest way that you folks could show your appreciation for what we are doing. And I assure you we are all working to build up our National Defense in order to keep safe all that you women have given us from one generation to another.

Again thanking you from the bottom of my heart, I remain
Yours sincerely,

Diet and Health

By C. W. Lussman
of Sieburg Pharmacy

One of the most dangerous practices of modern times is that of indiscriminate or ill-advised dieting.

A diet that may be exactly the right thing for someone else may be extremely unwise for you. The human structure differs as widely as finger prints, one physique calling for one course of treatment and another for something quite different.

Never attempt a diet schedule without the competent advice of an able physician, a man who knows you and your physical makeup thoroughly and well.

If medication is required, procure it from a thorough pharmacist.

Rest Home notes

Mrs. Caddie A. Kern of Willow Brook Farm, Roselle, has returned to the home for care. The members of the Home are happy to have her with them.

The Home also welcomes Mrs. Louis Thake of Elmhurst road, Des Plaines, who was transferred to it Tuesday from the St. Francis hospital of Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Norman of Palatine were dinner guests at the Home Thursday. The Normans operate the Palatine theatre.

On Wednesday Mr. Limburg of Chicago visited Henry Raquet in company with two of Mr. Raquet's grand nieces, Mrs. Eva Hastings and Mrs. Mary Nielsen, also of Chicago. The party motored to Northfield Cemetery, where Mr. Raquet's family are buried. Mr. William Rapp of Chicago called on Mr. Raquet Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frakes of Park Ridge were the guests Thursday of Miss Helen Keller, and Mrs. Hayes visited her Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lunk and daughter, Fern, all of Park Ridge, entertained Miss Keller at dinner Friday. Following the dinner they attended a Dr. In show at Golf and Waukegan roads.

Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Linville attended their family reunion at the old home of the Caldwell family near New Holland, Illinois, on Sunday. There were eighty relatives in attendance. This entire group met at the Methodist church in the little town for the morning church service, after which they were served a fine chicken dinner in the dining room of the church. Following the dinner these relatives drove out to the farm and had an interesting program. There are two of the original family living on the home place, where they had lived since 1855. These two aunts, Mrs. Olson and Miss Caldwell, are known to a number of Mrs. Hansen's friends in Arlington Heights. Both of these aunts made fine talks welcoming the folks back to the old home and telling interesting incidents of the past. Then one representative from each of the other nine branches of the family gave items of interest. The music was furnished by Mrs. Hansen's family. They were fourteen of them in attendance. The relatives came from Idaho, Kansas, Colorado and Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen spent Tuesday at Barrington Camp Grounds. Religious services, held by the Evangelical Church, are in progress there at the present time. The program for the week includes good music by a young people's choir directed by Rev. Monson of Joliet who himself is a fine soloist, and helpful messages from outstanding pastors and missionaries. The concluding day is this coming Sunday, August 17. The timely and serious messages presented will be profitable for anyone interested in his spiritual growth.

Diet and Health

By C. W. Lussman
of Sieburg Pharmacy

One of the most dangerous practices of modern times is that of indiscriminate or ill-advised dieting.

A diet that may be exactly the right thing for someone else may be extremely unwise for you. The human structure differs as widely as finger prints, one physique calling for one course of treatment and another for something quite different.

Never attempt a diet schedule without the competent advice of an able physician, a man who knows you and your physical makeup thoroughly and well.

If medication is required, procure it from a thorough pharmacist.

Following the dinner these relatives drove out to the farm and had an interesting program. There are two of the original family living on the home place, where they had lived since 1855. These two aunts, Mrs. Olson and Miss Caldwell, are known to a number of Mrs. Hansen's friends in Arlington Heights. Both of these aunts made fine talks welcoming the folks back to the old home and telling interesting incidents of the past. Then one representative from each of the other nine branches of the family gave items of interest. The music was furnished by Mrs. Hansen's family. They were fourteen of them in attendance. The relatives came from Idaho, Kansas, Colorado and Illinois.

LIFE WITH MOTHER

Dear Mary:

Because you said that George liked my sketch of Davy so well, I'm sending him this one of himself. It is a picture of him that I've carried in my memory ever since one day last fall, when we drove up to your house and found him waiting for us standing by a tree out in front. He had evidently been scrubbed and combed to within an inch of his life. He had on his new sailor suit and the autumn sun shone on his blonde hair so that it looked like a golden cap. You had undoubtedly told him to stay clean, at least until we arrived, I could see the struggle with his conscience going on in his face. On one side his good fairy was telling him to keep quiet and be able to show us the new suit in all of its glory. On the other side his Imp of Mischief was tempting him with suggestions of things to do that would be fun but which he knew would get him dirty. It's queer how anything that's fun for boys invariably includes getting dirty, isn't it?

My entire family literally hung over my shoulders while I was making the drawing, jiggling the table and my elbow frequently, so that is my excuse for its crudeness. Davy flattered me highly by recognizing George, but when I put the good fairy in he said, "That's Louis with wings on!" This observation wasn't so bad, as I suppose I had unconsciously done just that. But when the Imp of Mischief came along and Davy said "That's Daddy" I decided that I had better give up sketching, even for you.

It has occurred to me that in my letters to you, I mention Davy ad nauseum. One would think that I had an only child. You know better than anyone that I am the mother of two. You know that I never say the word, Louis, without a strangulation of my throat. I'm saying the name of my son and the name of my beloved and only brother in the one word. I don't think the "Family" approved, when Dave and I announced the name of our second son. It seems that the name, Louis, is used too frequently in comic vein. Dave says that there is a comic character "Loogie" which is quite derivative of the name. The people at the office have even teased Dave about Louis' name. One old maid who is a fixture there told him bluntly that she didn't like it. When Dave told me about this he said "When you say the word Louis, it doesn't sound like the way anyone else says it."

This comment of Dave's made me think, curiously enough, not about whether the baby would one day dislike his name or not, but about what his father thought about it now! From what I've read the peoples of other nationalities, regard the American Husband as a being unique because he allows his wife far too much freedom and much too much to say about their life together. I agree heartily with the opinion of outsiders, that the American Husband is a being unique, but for slightly different reasons. He is from my experience of him a gentleman. I mean by that, that he is first and always a man in all the word implies, a creature of courage and strength and honesty, but also gentle with all the qualities that word implies, well born, good, chivalrous and, yes, tender! When we knew that we were to have another child, we were delighted. I said immediately, "I want another boy, his name will be Louis." Dave said, "Of course, darling. It couldn't be anything else." I didn't dream when I suggested the name Louis, that his father would ever be grieved about it! I only know that when Dr. Cornell told me joyfully that

PTA all star vaudeville show has talented cast

I had another son I looked at him solemnly and said, "But of course, it is Louis!"

But Louis is a baby—a soft, cuddly baby—he doesn't ever walk—he waddles. He can say only one word and that is "Da." I know that his beaming father thinks that he is beautiful! How his father can think that he is beautiful, is one of the minor mysteries of life to me. He looks exactly like Mr. Herbert Hoover, if Mr. Hoover had yellow curls and Joe E. Brown's mouth. I can think of no art critic who would agree that such a combination could be beautiful. His chief charm to me is his absolute complacency and complete good humor. He allows all of us to hug and kiss him constantly, and get up when someone else goes and gets him, it makes no difference to him. I'm the worst offender when it comes to hugging and kissing him. I love him more than I did any dolls, even "Soft Dora" my rag doll! But though his conduct is often amusing to us, I don't believe it is as astounding as Dave's. What would you say if you were hanging your clothes on the line and had your mouth full of clothespins when suddenly a four-year-old appeared before you and said very seriously, "Eleanor I want to talk over my case with you. The Palatine one. I went into court at two o'clock and the Judge didn't hear me until three. He was a bad judge. He spoiled my golf game. Me! Me! played golf without me."

I'm thrilled about your finding Hilltop Farm and can hardly wait until I see it. I know I'll love it because you do. We'll be out to see everything the first minute you say that we won't interfere with your work. Dave and I will be glad to work, too, if you think we'll help and not hinder. Just say the word. When the actual moving time comes, I certainly can take all, or any of the boys off your hands until you're settled.

With my love to you all,
As always, Eleanor

Many showers for Evelyn Helfoogt

Miss Evelyn Helfoogt was the honored guest at four bridal showers given the past week. The first was at the home of Mrs. Harold Helfoogt which was on August 1. The second was August 3 at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Henry Winkelhake of Schaumburg. The third at the home of a friend, Mrs. Larry Felten of Des Plaines August 7, and the fourth, a personal shower given by the club girls at the home of Miss Ruth Schwolow on August 8.

Miss Evelyn received many beautiful and useful gifts which she can enjoy at her home. Miss Evelyn will be the bride of Ed. Karnotz, August 30.

"The show of the hour," the P.T.A. sponsored all-star vaudeville show, to be given Friday evening, September 13th, at the high school, shows promise of being the entertainment hit of the year. The greatest difficulty is in finding places on the program for all the excellent talent offered. You've no idea how many clever and talented people are living among us, amateur and professional as well. They are champing to meet and anxious to please - and that makes it all the harder for the Ways and Means committee to pick and choose for the show. Variety is the keynote and there will be an act to suit every taste.

Tommie Bartlett promises that he will be in the pink of condition full of pep and brimming with fun, and is looking forward to being Master of Ceremonies. The singers and dancers are practicing with the orchestra, and the orchestra, Earl Fredrichs and his men will be in top form, giving their best. Everyone is on his toes - including our own Joan Haugen, of the Jack and Jill players, a grand little entertainer - to make this the show of shows.

You P.T.A. people stand to gain if you pitch in and make this project 100 per cent successful - you will help make the money for the P.T.A. budget in one effort - you will be relieved of further calls for contributions - and you will be helping the U.S.O.

The Parent-Teacher Association of Arlington Heights has in the past received the staunch support of the people of the community in its projects and programs, and it is the hope of the committee and the Executive Board, that it will continue to enjoy their interest and cooperation. Additional tickets can be secured from Mrs. Paul Miller, Tel. 1393; and Mrs. Tom Hildebrand, Tel. 756-J; adults 35 cents, children and students 15 cents. Arlington Heights and community, the P.T.A. will be expecting you at the high school, September 5, 8 o'clock.

Past Worthy Matrons club entertained

The special occasion that had been eagerly looked forward to by the members of this club took place on August 6. Myrtle L. Frey, one of the club members, and Florence Luckner, Worthy Matron of the local O. E. S. chapter, entertained this club and one special guest at a most delightful luncheon at Fisher's tea room, Park Ridge.

After luncheon the guests went to the home of their hostesses in Mount Prospect where the remainder of the afternoon was spent in cutting out bed jackets, which the club is making for the ladies in the Sanitarium at Macon, and enjoying a few hands of cards. High honors went to Maybelle C. Jasper, Emma Laurin, and Irene Hauff. The attendance prizes were won by Frances Thorson and Georgiana Pankonin.

Garden club to open program with lawn party

Wednesday evening, August 27, the Arlington Heights Garden club opens its fall and winter program with a Lawn Party and Flower Exhibit on the spacious lawn of Mrs. George Max Adam, 304 East Euclid Avenue. There will be awards given for flower arrangements in two classes—table arrangements and flower baskets. Everyone is urged to enter their fall flowers in this competition, which is open to anyone in Arlington Heights.

Starting at 7:30 ice cream, cake and coffee will be served. There will be a charge of twenty-five cents for adults, fifteen cents for children, which will defray expenses and help towards the fund to provide interesting speakers on garden subjects during the winter months.

Because of the unusual size of the garden at the Adam residence, the flower arrangements can be displayed to advantage in spite of the large gathering expected. The Garden club is arranging for special lighting that should add to the general effect. In case of rain that evening, the plans call for postponement to the following evening, August 28.

Everyone is cordially invited not only to attend the affair but also to bring their flowers over to the residence in the afternoon or early evening, to add to the effectiveness of the surroundings and to enter them in the arrangement competition if they so desire.

Fog blamed as five cars collide

Fog was blamed last week Wednesday night about ten o'clock, when five cars collided at the junction of Higgins and Mannheim rds. No one was seriously hurt.

Leonard Hanson, Jr., Chicago, was towing his dad in another car east on Higgins rd. and approached the Mannheim rd. junction at a slow rate of speed. Visibility was bad and he failed to stop until he was half way across the rd.

Oscar Marcus, Chicago, driving north on Mannheim in a truck, hit the second Hanson auto and veered off to hit southbound Edward Kaiser, Des Plaines, head-on. Hanson, Sr.'s car also skidded and struck the vehicle of Larry Pontarelli, Chicago, who had stopped for the stop sign on the east side of the junction.

None of the occupants suffered injury though all of the cars were damaged.

Chicagoans rams train near Des Plaines

Samuel Domain, Chicago, hit the first engine of a double header 70-car freight train Monday afternoon about one o'clock on the Rand rd. crossing north of Des Plaines but survived to tell the story.

Domain had been driving south on Rand when the accident occurred suffering numerous cuts, abrasions of his legs and several fractured ribs. The car was completely demolished.

MAYWOOD DRIVER HITS COUNTY TRUCK SOUTH OF ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Bertil Moberg, Maywood, struck a county truck last Wednesday on Arlington Heights road just south of Landmeier rd. while the latter was parked and being filled with gravel.

Moberg saw the truck just as he came around a bend in the road, applied his brakes and skidded into the parked vehicle. Neither Moberg or Gordon Eagan, Chicago, driving the highway truck, were hurt.

CHICAGOANS COLLIDE ON RAND RD. WHEN BOTH CROSS CENTER LINE

Two Chicagoans collided Saturday morning on Rand rd. near Foundry rd. when both of them allegedly crossed the center line and narrowly avoided a head-on collision.

George Anderson was driving toward Chicago while Frank Moskal was motoring northwest. Both testified that the other had crossed the division line but were unhurt.

BARRINGTON TRUCK COLLIDES AT RAND

George Gross of Barrington attempted a left turn with his truck Monday morning while driving south on Rand rd. just south of county line rd. and was hit by G. S. Howell of Glen Ellyn, as he did so. The two vehicles were damaged but their drivers were unhurt.

GUERNSEY IS SOLD TO LOUIS LUERSEN

The American Guernsey Cattle Club, Peterborough, N. H., reports the sale of a registered Guernsey bull by Max McGraw of Dundee to Louis Luerssen of Palatine.

Four injured when Camp Reinberg truck is hit

Four persons were injured Saturday afternoon, one of them seriously when a truck from Camp Reinberg loaded with 17 passengers, was hit by a Barrington auto. The truck was proceeding south on Quintens rd. crossing Dundee rd. when it was struck by Robert Lundstrom, Barrington youth, driving west with two others.

Bartholomew Finn, Chicago boy, riding in the truck, was thrown to the pavement. He was given first aid and then rushed to the county hospital in Chicago. The three Barrington boys, Lundstrom, Leslie Ebert and Martin Krasel, were all treated at the Camp Reinberg infirmary, but were not seriously hurt.

BENSENVILLE AUTO ONE OF FOUR INVOLVED IN NORTH AVE. CRASH

Raymond Wilson of Bensenville, driving east on North ave. Sunday afternoon, was one of four autoists involved in a collision just east of First ave.

Luther Schwartzkopf, Chicago, had pulled from an outdoor bowling establishment and pulled in between the two sections of the North ave. pavement, expecting to turn west. The rear of his car protruded over the eastbound slab, necessitating a quick turn by Stephen Chadderdon, Chicago. The latter's car was hit by Rose Salvatore, Chicago, who, in turn, was struck by Wilson. Damage was confined to the cars.

NONE HURT IN HEAD-ON AT RTE. 58, HARLEM

A head-on collision occurred on Sunday night at the junction of rte. 58 and Harlem ave., but neither driver was hurt.

James Miller, Chicago, was driving west on rte. 58 and attempted a left turn onto Harlem ave., striking Henry Halsema of Evanston who was driving east. The latter swerved in an attempt to avoid the collision but was unsuccessful.

DRIVER WRECKS CAR WHILE TURNING AVE. BUT ESCAPES UNHURT

H. H. Miller of Chicago wrecked his 1941 automobile Saturday evening when he lost control and turned over but was comparatively unhurt.

Miller had been moving east on Algonquin rd. at a high rate of speed, attempted to pass another car and lost control in doing so. The car left the road in a cloud of dust, turning over several times. Miller was treated at the Palatine hospital for a few minor scratches.

CITY COUNCIL FINDS NO 'FIRE PLUG' LAW AT DES PLAINES

The Des Plaines city council recently discovered that there is no city ordinance against parking near a fire plug in that city. The only rule against such procedure is a state law and any fines resulting from arrests for such illegal parking is the property of the state of Illinois.

Action will be taken to add such a traffic law to the Des Plaines books. When asked how many arrests had been made for such violations, Chief Becker replied, "none."

Twenty years' work of road commissioner is termed illegal

Twenty years work on the part of Edward O. Clark, Niles township, road commissioner, in maintaining streets within the Skokie village limits, was declared illegal last week at a Niles town board meeting. According to law, Clark must continue his efforts to keep in repair 2 small stretches of road a little over a quarter of a mile in length.

For the past 17 years approximately $1,700 has been appropriated yearly for supervisory fees, and another $14,000 annually for the road and bridge fund. If this money had been spent on the two streets under the road commissioner's jurisdiction, it would have averaged about $7,300 a city block during each of these years. However Clark obtained permission from village officials to maintain certain streets within their incorporated areas.

The opinion of illegality was brought forth by attorney P. J. Struck, acting on orders of the township board. Action was brought after one of the bills for repair work on streets within the Skokie limits was refused by the board. One of the township residents had threatened to bring suit against Clark in an effort to recover the allegedly misused funds.

The board elected to refuse payment in the future for all bills presented to the township for work on corporate streets.

ILLEGAL TURN CAUSES COLLISION AT NORTH AVE., MANNHEIM RD. JUNCTION

An illegal left turn from the outer lane by Joseph Netupski, Chicago, caused a collision at 3 a. m. Saturday but no one was hurt. Netupski had been driving south on rte. 45 and made the turn from the outer lane just as he was being passed in the inner lane by Harold Pombrow of Riverside.

Famous railroad car journeys last mile to Barrington

"No. 70," the famous private car of presidents and other railway notables has come to rest at the home of R. M. Hoffman, Barrington, to be used as a guest house and museum.

The car, known simply as "No. 70," was for several decades the private car of such notables as the late James J. Hill, and Arthur Curtis James. It was built in 1862 and represented for some years the height of luxury in travel. It combined bedroom, bath, dining-room and office for officials and guests.

The car traveled over the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific routes, later on the Burlington lines. In 1917 it was renovated and equipped with new lighting system and a steel underframe. Eventually it was discarded and banished to a Burlington branch line in Nebraska from which it was rescued by its present owner.

Mr. Hoffman's enthusiasm as collector of model trains of a variety, old railroad prints, posters, time tables and the like, will bring together the car and collections on the 60 feet of track laid in his yard.

May have to turn in old license plates

Motorists may be required to turn in their 1941 license plates in order to obtain 1942 tags, because of the shortage of sheet steel.

The Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply requested states to impose such a requirement, and said that steel was being allocated for the 1942 plates only because the time was too short to enable states to find substitutes. Await formal notice.

Illinois officials said they would await formal notification from the federal government before deciding whether automobile owners of the state would be required to turn in 1941 license plates, when 1942 plates are issued, due to a sheet steel shortage.

At the office of the Secretary of State, Edward J. Hughes it was pointed out, however, that this state is in no danger of a shortage of steel for manufacture of Illinois plates for the next two years.

WALTHER LEAGUE Northern Illinois District

News items for this department should be mailed not later than Monday to Arlene Nagel, publicity chairman, 804 N. Douglas St., Arlington Heights.

Seeing that your regular correspondent, Arlene, is enjoying a week at the sunny shores of Camp Arcadia, I shall try to take over this week. I do hope, however, that she doesn't forget to come back.

The big thing on our minds right now seems to be the boat trip to Milwaukee on August 24. This outing as you know will include about 150 Lutheran young people who are members of the Northwest Suburban Zone Walther League. They plan to leave Navy Pier on Sunday, August 24, at 9:30 a. m. A few hours will be spent in Milwaukee and the boat will dock again in Chicago at about 9:30 p. m.

A worship will be held in one of the state rooms with a candidate, conducting the service. On the return trip the Cultural Activities department, under the direction of Mr. Glenn Bees of Park Ridge, will offer some varied entertainment, the talent being taken from the member societies. Miss Ruth Gehrs of Arlington Heights is in charge of the trip and is being assisted in the sale of tickets by the following: Arlington Heights, Ken Koehnke; Barrington, Herb Gehrke; Bensenville, Miss Myrtha Weinrich; Des Plaines, Miss Norma Meyer; Elmwood Park, Robert Gillis; Itasca, Miss Annetta Bicknese; Niles, Walter Bloetner; Norwood Park -- Our Savior's, Art Streit; Norwood Park -- St. Paul's, Werner Preuter; Palatine, George Hinrichs; Park Ridge, Glen Bees; River Grove, Gale Heiss; Roselle, Marian Fenz; and Schaumburg, Harvey Rohling. Mr. Theodore Meyer of Arlington Heights is president of this young people's group.

Rev. A. H. Fedder of Des Plaines is the spiritual advisor. The Northwest Suburban Zone is comprised of approximately 500 young people from the 13 senior societies mentioned above and 8 junior societies. The zone is a member of the International Walther League of the Northern Illinois District, which will have its 17th annual convention in Chicago on October 11 and 12.

We might also add that you must have the order for your boat ticket placed with your key-man by August 16 so that he can in turn get your tickets from Miss Ruth Gehrs, the ticket chairman. The cost of dinner if you buy it on the boat will be about $1.00, however, you may bring your own lunch.

A week ago Sunday, a group of Arlington Seniors motored to Camp Cisco at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin for a day of fun. They enjoyed volleyball, boating, swimming, horseshoe and the campfire sing. Church was attended in the morning, Pastor Wm. Danker of Harvard had charge of the service. Everyone said they wish the gang would do it more often.

Well the suspense of the final play-off game for our zone baseball tournament is finally over and we are happy to announce the successful and winning team for this year. The game between Park Ridge and Arlington Heights was played at Des Plaines last Sunday, the final score being 13 to 4 in favor of Arlington Heights. We know the boys worked hard and deserve the honor. May we extend our congratulations and wish you continued success in your world of sports.

Next Sunday the boys will go to Blue Island to play the district winner.

Looking into the future, we might advise the Junior Leaguers to keep September 14 open. This will be the day of the first separate Junior rally. Park Ridge Leaguers will be the hosts and really promise you a good time. A separate Junior rally ought to mean something to you Juniors so don't forget the day, September 14. The Senior Rally is to be held on September 28 at the Roselle school, Roselle and Schaumburg leaguers serving as hosts.

Don't forget the District convention at the Stevens hotel on October 11 and 12. Get your reservations in now so that you can be assured of getting choice rooms and banquet reservations. Everyone is going, so start early. Remember the old saying "it's the early bird that gets the worm."

Well, Arlene, there it is, hope I did alright.

Ruth Schulte.

It Happened Here

Groups of strangers being shown around Field's by an elderly woman in the firm manner of a preceptor; this floor is not air-conditioned and the heat drains the interest from most of the faces with the exception of a boy and a girl on the fringe who take time out for a swift caress. But this restaurant in the Palmer House is air-conditioned and very soothing after the glare of the street; the walls are artistically done with clever color sketches and the tables and divans under the softly muted lights suggest a luxury Caligula might have envied; the woman who, with reason, says she is going to reduce, looks ruefully at her sparsely buttered sandwiches and asks for another pat of butter. "This is no longer a free country," she complained to her neighbor, "you just can't do anything at all any more."

"Talk about air-conditioning," said her companion, "None of the stores are properly conditioned, not at all like Indianapolis or Cleveland or Kansas City." The extra pat of butter came and the conversation drifted to talk about the camps and food provided there. "... and if you get into one of these defense jobs, you're stuck to the end of the duration." The conditioned Lake, unbelievably blue, is doing its sparkling best for visitors, dancing with whitecaps and gulls simulating whitecaps; everywhere white sails are dipping and feathering on the gay kingfisher blue surface or standing out, dazzling white, against the horizon, a super playground to challenge Kansas City and points west. ... David in his Oak Lawn home, answered the long ring of the telephone to hear the operator saying, "Louisiana calling," as tho it might be Arlington Heights or Des Plaines, and over the wires came the voice of the draftee brother-in-law asking for news of Minnie his young wife, ill at a hospital. Louisiana calling—Texas calling—Missouri calling—all lonely boys in far off camps asking for news of home's Amuser.

Wisconsin fair August 16-24

With the presentation of "Stars on Parade," the Wisconsin State Fair, Milwaukee, August 16-24, will reach a new high in night show entertainment. The show's great cast of more than 200, including stars of stage, screen and radio, its scenic surprises and unusual lighting effects, and its songs, dances, comic sequences and circus thrills, will be held nightly in front of the grandstand August 17-23.

Each of the many scenes will be a complete show in itself. The opening scene will be Piccadilly Lane, featuring the cavalcade of the dance. This number will introduce the Bernard Brothers and the Lovely Ladies, the hit of the Dominion theatre in Piccadilly Circus just a little while before the blitzkrieg hit London. The New Yorkers, 22 weeks a featured attraction at the Roxy theatre in New York; Ann Morrison, top-ranking prima donna; and the Ronald Melvin dancers all will participate in this number.

The second number will be "Springtime," featuring Irene Vermillion, acrobatic dancer, and the Victor Harp Quartet, consisting of four pretty girls playing four golden instruments.

Scene three, "At the Durbar," will take the audience to the Delhi, India, and give an insight into the fantastic beauty and brilliance of the Orient. This scene will introduce the great Eris troupe known as the "Royal Family of the Riding Ring." The troupe will give a remarkable exhibition of tumbling in and out of a large carriage, and on and off the backs of running horses.

Other scenes will be "South of the Border," a fast-moving picture of hot rhumbas and congas, and "Salute to the U. S. A.," a brilliant climax, with full-sized model army tanks with 20-foot guns and a mechanized ballet.

Infantile paralysis cases reported in suburban area

Despite the fact that 18 cases of infantile paralysis have been reported in the western suburban areas of Cook county exclusive of Chicago, Evanston, and Winnetka to date so far this year, the real season for infantile paralysis still lies ahead reported Dr. Edward A. Piszczek, health officer of the Cook County Public Health Unit. Dr. Piszczek said that in 1940, two cases of infantile paralysis were reported during July, three in August, ten in September, twelve in October, three in November, in the suburban areas of Cook county outside of Chicago. It is expected that many more cases will be reported during the next few months.

Parents should watch for signs of temperature, headache, nausea, stiff neck and stiff back in their children, and if any of the above signs and symptoms occur, the family physician should be called immediately. Consultation to the family physician and free convalescent poliomyelitis serum are available to all sufferers of the disease in the state of Illinois. Early recognition of the disease and prompt treatment may prevent crippling.

An epidemic of poliomyelitis is invading Illinois from the south and careful observation of the children by parents will aid greatly in the early recognition of the disease.

Liked Himself

As a youth, Hans Christian Andersen had a conviction that he would be famous, even before he began to write the fairy tales that made him so. This small-town boy loved to be talked about and to talk about himself; he fidgeted in misery unless notice went to him in any gathering.

National Vegetable Growers Name Local Member President

Cook County Truck Gardeners and Farmers association became the first affiliate of the national organization west of the Ohio to put up a member in the president's chair of the Vegetable Growers association of America.

Frank J. Klein, of Rogers Park, was voted president at the national convention held in Columbus, Ohio, last week. Klein is a director of the local organization that consists of between 1700 and 1800 members. August Gewecke, Des Plaines, has been president of the local association since 1933.

The office of vice president also went to a middle westerner, Leo Hageman, of Peoria, breaking a precedent of long standing of selecting its officers from the east. Klein has been vice president of the national group the past two years. Hageman is also secretary of the state association.

Other officers elected were H. D. Brown, Worthington, Ohio, re-elected secretary, A. J. Driesbach, Lyndon, Ky., renamed treasurer, John Hong, Rocky River, Ohio, and Henry Marquardt, Orchard Park, N. Y., directors.

Besides Klein, two others from the Cook County organization attended the four day meetings, William H. Pruetter, Chicago, director, and Elmer J. Steil, Des Plaines, assistant secretary.

A program to bolster truck prices which have risen 32 per cent in the last year, was advanced by the vegetable growers. The association adopted a resolution asking: "That the U. S. department of agriculture, through the AAA recommend that vegetable acreage not be increased, except for defense purposes, and

"That the federal food stamp plan for disposing of surplus farm commodities be increased as much as possible among lower groups."

The growers took that position, they said, because a tremendous increase in vegetable acreage in the last few years has caused overproduction and low markets and imposed burdensome production costs on the truck farmer.

From 1924 to 1928 truck crops in the United States averaged 2,800,730 and last year the plant was 3,023,320 acres. Higher prices paid for produce have been offset to some extent by an increase of 19 to 31 per cent in farm land costs, plus gains in equipment prices.

The association also urged that the federal and state governments strive to eliminate interstate trade barriers, especially as they apply to marketing of vegetables.

"Most of the troubles now tearing Europe apart have their foundation in the throttling of the free movement of trade between the different countries," the growers said.

In announcing awards in the annual agricultural scholarship contest of the junior affiliate group, Earl R. French, national marketing director of the A. & P.'s produce buying affiliate, asserted that "the next two or three years may see an expansion far greater than during any corresponding previous period."

Diets below safety line
He said the national emergency has shocked America into a realization that "some 45,000,000 Americans" have diets which fall below the safety line for the protection of health.

"This is significant to the vegetable industry," he explained, "because, according to nutrition experts, the most acute deficiency of all is in the consumption of vegetables and fruits. It is estimated that the average American should eat twice as many vegetables as he does now."

Biggest single problem facing produce farmers, he pointed out, is that of inefficiency in distribution methods. He said distribution costs last year including packing, transportation and handling, took 58c of every food dollar, leaving 42c to the producer.

He saw a ray of hope, however, in the fact that organized retailers, "are slowly working toward reduction and elimination of the unnecessary, in-between costs of marketing vegetables," and instead are sending them directly from farm to table.

Men farms need, told how to ask draft deferment

What Cook County farmers can do to help assume themselves a labor supply adequate for the production of essential farm goods was outlined this week by C. A. Hughes, Farm Adviser.

The director of the selective service system has asked all local draft boards to give special consideration to deferment of men needed in agricultural production. In addition, the WPA is making special effort to supply demands for farm labor.

In case a man believed to be indispensable to the farm is drafted, here is what to do:

1. When the selective service questionnaire is received, ask deferment in Class 2, occupational deferment; or, if there are dependents, Class 3, dependency.

2. The employer or dependent should submit to the local draft board Form 42 or a letter properly witnessed and presenting the reasons for requesting deferment. The registrant should also present the facts and request for deferment by letter if necessary, in addition to the statement in the questionnaire.

3. If the local board does not grant the requested deferment, the case may be appealed to the board of appeals by the registrant, by the persons who signed Form 42, by a dependent, by the government appeal agent or by the state director of the selective service. A government appeal agent is attached to each board, and he will assist in filing appeals.

"Agriculture is not asking treatment that is not warranted," Hughes said, "but it is in the national interest that cases affecting production of vital products should be studied carefully. The selective service has recognized this already, and a substantial proportion of the occupational deferments has been made for agriculture."

Housewives lost battle with home accidents in 1940

American housewives are losing a major battle at home by not stemming the ever-increasing tide of home accident fatalities, 33,000 of which occurred in 1940. This is an increase of more than 1,000 deaths over the preceding year, according to Miss Gladys Ward, home management specialist, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Burns, the second major cause of home fatalities, took more than 5,700 lives last year. Falls and burns accounted for two-thirds of all fatalities.

For farm homemakers there is the added significant fact that 24 per cent of farm home deaths are caused by burns, while the national percentage is only 17 per cent.

Burns caused more than one-fourth of the deaths of children less than four years of age and one-third of the deaths of children between the ages of 5 and 14, according to figures compiled by the National Safety Council. Almost one-fourth of the young people between the ages of 15 and 24 and adults between 25 and 64 who met accident death at home were burned to death.

Reasons for these accidents can be traced to starting fires with kerosene or gasoline, cleaning clothes indoors with inflammable liquids and leaving kettles of hot liquids or food on the floor or close to the edge of the stove or table, said Miss Ward. If patriotic housewives will make as much effort to check their homes for safety as they did in collecting aluminum for national defense, they can defeat one enemy which is already within their gates.

Prices to keep on soaring, U. of I. believes

by E. M. HUGHES
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

With the continued rise in wholesale prices, which is being reflected more and more in retail price levels, the attention of the consumer is directed toward rising living costs. Federal authorities are very conscious of the inflation in commodity prices that is now taking place and are anxious to apply the brakes.

On August 1 the administration's price control bill was introduced in Congress. Hearings on the bill started on August 5 with the opening testimony of Leon Henderson, Director of the OPAEC. He emphasized the fact that the controls with which the president would be empowered if the bill passed would probably not be sufficient to prevent a substantial rise in the general price level.

One of the significant features of the bill is that it does not provide for means of controlling wage increases. Likewise, there is no provision for applying price ceilings to farm products until they reach 110 per cent of parity of the price prevailing July 29, which ever is higher. The latter was an important factor contributing to rise in farm prices during the week.

According to recent reports the price control provisions of the bill now under discussion approach the job of price level control primarily through the mechanism of price ceilings on key commodities rather than attempting to control the general advance in commodity prices through monetary means or through increased taxation or forced savings, such as deductions from wages for purchases of government bonds.

The latter methods would act on all commodities and would require much less of an administrative force, whereas the method which will probably be put into use will require control of the supply and consumption of many individual commodities in order to enforce price ceilings. Such a method of individual price control rather than the control of the general commodity price level will require, if it is to be a success, a Gestapo of large proportions to see that the commodities are not bootlegged in the market.

Recently a large manufacturer of aluminum dye castings told me that he had offered to him 250 tons of bootleg aluminum at 7 cents over the market price. I am told, also, that there are considerable quantities of bootleg copper and other nonferrous metals being bought and sold at more than the market prices. It is doubtful if the administrative authorities have either the personnel or the desire to set up a price policing force of the magnitude that this job would call for. The best bet seems to be to look for further price rises in wholesale and retail commodity price levels.

Price rises in U. S. and elsewhere
Since August, 1939, the amount of rise in the price of 40 identical basic commodities in each of nine countries has varied from about 20 to 100 per cent. The following data, supplied by E. A. Pearson, of Cornell University, gives an index of the prices of each of these countries based on August, 1939, equaling 100.

Homemakers told quality peaches coming to market

Successful handling of the Illinois portion of the 66-million-bushel national peach crop depends upon the cooperative action of growers who will give the fruit every opportunity to develop size and flavor and upon homemakers who will buy regularly throughout the season, it is pointed out by V. W. Kelley, horticulture extension, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Illinois' crop this year will run around 4,000 to 5,000 carloads with

The greatest rise has taken place in the European countries and the smallest rise in the countries in the Southern Hemisphere.

The North American countries are between Europe and the Southern Hemisphere countries in the extent of price rise. It is impossible to get up-to-date price figures from Switzerland at the present time, but the June figures indicate a rise of about 100 per cent in that country. In Sweden and England prices have risen about 50 per cent, and in the United States, Argentina and Canada 30 to 40 per cent since August, 1939.

Not all commodity price groups move the same
The price rise which is now taking place in both wholesale and retail prices is typical of price movements of the two groups of commodities in past periods of rising prices; that is, wholesale prices have moved quicker and have gone up to a greater degree than have retail prices. On a decline, wholesale prices will sink rapidly whereas retail prices will decline slowly.

Of the wholesale commodities, farm products have had the largest rise since August, 1939. This rise has brought about a better balance between the price of farm and industrial commodities. Despite this sharp rise, the price of foods are still low relative to the earnings of important groups of nonfarm workers. With their earnings well above the 1929 level, factory workers could buy 58 foods at retail for about one-fifth less than in 1929. About one-half of this was contributed by farmers in lower farm prices.

Farm products and food prices are now increasing more rapidly than during the last war. Textiles are slightly behind the last war, and building materials and metals also are behind because price control is being exercised. The differences between the rise in price of various groups of commodities for the first 22 months of the present war and the World War, using 100 as the price level at the outbreak of the war in each instance, are as follows:

the major portion of the crop of excellent quality, Kelley predicted. As it looks now Illinois peaches will start to market around August 7 and will command a reasonable price if marketed in the Illinois portion of the marketing season.

Home canning is expected to take care of the major part of the crop. However, freezing is recommended as one desirable way to preserve the fruit in a more nearly fresh stage.

Freezing
Select fully ripe, sound fruit which is prime for eating. Plunge the fruit into boiling water to loosen the skin. Remove immediately from the hot water, immerse in cold water until cool, then peel.

Keep peeled fruit under water until ready to package to prevent discoloration. Peel only enough fruit to fill a few packages at a time so that it will not have to stand for long periods in water and thus become water soaked.

Slice the peaches directly into the freezing container. Fill to within 1/2 inch of top and cover immediately with a 40 to 60 per cent sugar syrup. A 50 per cent syrup is made by using 1 cup of sugar and 1 cup of water. Boil mixture to dissolve sugar and cool before using. The percentage of sugar in the syrup will depend upon variety of peaches used and the taste preference of the individual.

Seal the package and send to locker plant for freezing as soon as possible. Quality of the frozen product is determined by speed in preparation and freezing.

Peach Preserves
Good to eat and a good source of calories are peach preserves. The recipe calls for 1 1/2 cups of sugar and 1/2 cup of water to 1 pound of peaches. Remove skins and pits and cut peaches into uniform size pieces. Make a syrup by using the sugar and water and boiling to 218 to 220 degrees Fahrenheit. Add peaches and boil rapidly until they are clear in appearance and the syrup is thick. Stir to prevent sticking. Put peaches in hot, sterilized jars, fill with boiling syrup and seal.

Wheat farmers plan to store market excess

The Cook County farmers who have wheat in excess of their marketing quotas probably will use the storage privilege offered under the quota program as a means of postponing or avoiding the marketing penalty, according to Henry Gewecke, AAA Committeeman.

Under the storage provision, the producer has the option of storing his excess wheat either on his farm or in a public warehouse, Gewecke points out. In order to qualify for this storage, he may put up a personal or corporate surety bond for the amount of the penalty as assurance that none of the excess will be sold, fed, turned over to the Commodity Credit Corporation in settlement of a loan or marketed in any way.

Such wheat, if sealed in storage approved for loans, will be eligible for a loan at 60 per cent of the loan rate offered farmers who planted within their allotments.

Instead of putting up a bond, however, the producer may deposit with the county AAA Committee a warehouse receipt covering the amount of excess wheat stored or cash covering the amount of the penalty. This warehouse receipt or cash will be held in escrow by the committee and may be redeemed if and when the producer takes advantage of the provisions offered for freeing the excess next year or later, or pays the penalty.

These provisions, Gewecke explains, provided that if a marketing quota is in effect in 1942, a farmer may market without penalty 1941 excess wheat equal to (1) the amount his 1942 actual production falls below the normal production of his allotted acreage, or (2) the amount equal to the normal production measured in terms of his normal yield on the acreage he reduces his 1942 plantings below his allotment.

Gewecke also points out that if supplies are back to normal next year, making a quota unnecessary, or if growers voting in the referendum deem quotas unnecessary, all

Gaares Finally Beat Heidorns in 5-4 Softball Thriller

Jinx broken; out in front with five wins

Games of Aug. 4-8

by RAYMOND E. HAYES

Heidorns followed up their play-off victory over Gaares on Sunday with a scheduled game win over Hoppers on Monday last week. They beat the hapless Hoppers 11-4, pulling away after a Hopper rally had tied the score at 4-all.

Urik and Nick divided the pitching duties and allowed seven hits while walking two and fanning five. Busse and Piepenbrink worked for the losers, giving eleven hits, walking three, and getting no strikeouts.

Hoppers opened the game with an error but made no more "boots" thereafter. Heidorns played errorless ball throughout.

The defeat kept the losers in a cellar tie with Creamery.

Seven Errors

Creamery Package kept pace with Hoppers by losing to Iroquois on Tuesday evening, 14-1.

Felker, Willert, and Jiran were the hitters who solved Eickelman's pitches for safe hits in this game.

In the previous round he turned in a nifty performance.

Ray Willert was tops in hitting, getting two-for-two and a walk.

Jiran's home run in the sixth averted a shutout.

Eickelman, Imwie and Kehoe had two hits each, and together got half of their team's total.

Seven Creamery errors kept Jiran in trouble all the way.

CYO Eliminated

On Wednesday evening Benjamin Electric knocked CYO out of anything but a mathematical chance for a tie in the second round, beating them 4-0.

Brodnan allowed only six hits but had to contend with four errors and a feeble batting-attack by his mates.

LaMantia held the losers to four hits, all singles.

Two hits, two walks, and two errors in the second inning gave the Benjamins all their runs.

CYO wasted a single in the fourth when Mayerck was thrown out from left field when he discounted Oscar Lawrence's throwing arm and was caught at second. Another hit in the fifth, this time with two out, was useless.

In the sixth the CYO boys put two hits together in the same inning but again poor base-running mowed them down on the bases.

Having to play Bensenville and Leos yet, the CYO can finish no better than third this round.

Gaares Stay on Top

Gaares battered their way through Leos on Thursday for an eleven to two win. The winners pulled away with eight runs in the last two innings after trailing 2-0 briefly and holding a 3-2 lead for most of the game.

Herman Becker, back from a four weeks vacation, did all the hitting for Leos. "Beck" put his team ahead in the first inning with a homer, scoring Kouzmanoff, a pedestrian, ahead of him.

In the fourth Becker got his team's second and last hit, a single to right.

Hertel paced the Gaare attack with three-for-four. Garms, Hayes, Sadecky and Taege had two hits each. Garms and Kehe hit doubles.

The victory kept Gaares on top in the second round.

On Sunday evening Gaares and Heidorns met in a second-round game which had been postponed to make room for the USO benefit game earlier in the season. Gaares

Iroquois threaten Gaares 2nd round softball crown

By winning from Heidorns' Sunday evening, the Gaare Studebakers made sure of gaining at least a tie in the second round standings. Leading the league by one game, they have one more to play. This is with the strong Iroquois team of Bensenville.

The Iroquois-Gaare game, which was rained out on Monday evening of this week, will be played Sunday at 6:30. If Gaares should lose and drop into a tie with Benjamin Electric, the deciding game will be played on the following Wednesday. If Gaares beat Bensenville on Sunday, the play-off with Heidorns for the season's championship will begin on Wednesday evening.

Championship play-offs will be on a two-out-of-three basis. The trophy will be donated by the American Legion this year. There will also be trophies for individual players as in the past years. One will be given for best sportsmanship, the other for being the most valuable player.

A new feature of the softball season this year will be a banquet for players and friends of the league. Trophies will be presented at that time. Details of arrangements for this dinner will be available in the Herald soon.

won a see-saw struggle 5-4 in a game which had the crowd on its feet most of the time.

Heidorns led off with a run in the first inning. Frank Brodnan was safe on a ground ball which Garms barely reached and then fumbled. Wulbecker and Meyer walked. Milligan fled to left and Brodnan scored. "Red" Koelling fled to Tossman in left.

Brodnan hit the jackpot in the third with a homer to left center and Wulbecker followed with a single. Meyer singled and still no one was out. Milligan hit a ground ball to Kehe who started a fast double play the hard way—short to third to second. "Red" Koelling single but brother Kenneth fled to Tossman in left.

Gaares went ahead in the first of the fourth. Kehe was safe when the umpire ruled that Koelling took his foot off first base too soon while taking Charlie Nick's good throw. Taege promptly doubled. Hertel fled deep to right and Kehe scored. Sadecky walked. Weisgerber fled to right and Taege came home with the tying run.

Manager Frank Szasz, filling in for the injured Bublitz, hit a sharp grounder through second and Frank Brodnan fumbled it, letting Sadecky score the third run. Wolf forced Szasz.

A double by Brodnan with one out in the fifth paved the way for two Heidorns runs. Wulbecker grounded out. Meyer, after fouling several potential third strikes doubled. Milligan's single brought in the second run of the inning but H. Koelling popped to Kehe.

Sadecky walked with two out in the first of the sixth. Tossman, with a three-and-two count fouled four pitches, then hit a change-of-pace pitch to right center for a home run. The score was then 5-4.

Tossman dropped a fly ball in Heidorns' half of the sixth, and Urik singled. Doyle popped to Hertel and on Nick's low liner to right Urik was forced at second. Brodnan popped to short center. Neither team had a man on base in the seventh.

The game was the kind of struggle all the way which baseball fans love and could have gone to either team according to the way the breaks occurred.

Following the overwhelming victory scored by Gaares over Creamery less than two weeks before, the hard-fought game last week was a big surprise to the crowd and to Gaares. Some of the seasonal visitors

Smith hit one of his patented cross-handed smashes to left field for a triple to open the sixth. Alex Messaros drove him home with a single. Alex was forced by Felker who in turn was mopped up in a double-play with Jiran. There was considerable disagreement among the Creamery boys with the umpire's decision at first base, with the usual outcome.

Tossman hit, to open the Gaare half of the sixth. Hertel walked. Sadecky hit again, and Weisgerber drove a line smash into right-field. This drive was misjudged slightly, curved toward the foul-line, and got past the fielder for a home run, scoring three men and virtually determining the outcome of the game. Four runs were too much for Creamery to overcome.

The C. P. boys made a valiant effort. Ray Willert, with two mile-high pop-ups to his credit, tried batting left-handed. He drove a clean single into right. He was forced at second on a close play when Balek grounded to Kehe. The decision irked the Creamery team, with the usual outcome to the protests. A pop-up and a strike-out ended the game with the final score 7-2.

Creamery Package had five hits, two of which were triples, but received no walks. Gaares had nine hits, two of which were home runs, and were given three free trips to first base.

This drive was misjudged slightly, curved toward the foul-line, and got past the fielder for a home run, scoring three men and virtually determining the outcome of the game. Four runs were too much for Creamery to overcome.

The C. P. boys made a valiant effort. Ray Willert, with two mile-high pop-ups to his credit, tried batting left-handed. He drove a clean single into right. He was forced at second on a close play when Balek grounded to Kehe. The decision irked the Creamery team, with the usual outcome to the protests. A pop-up and a strike-out ended the game with the final score 7-2.

Creamery Package had five hits, two of which were triples, but received no walks. Gaares had nine hits, two of which were home runs, and were given three free trips to first base.

Following the overwhelming victory scored by Gaares over Creamery less than two weeks before, the hard-fought game last week was a big surprise to the crowd and to Gaares. Some of the seasonal visitors

Smith hit one of his patented cross-handed smashes to left field for a triple to open the sixth. Alex Messaros drove him home with a single. Alex was forced by Felker who in turn was mopped up in a double-play with Jiran. There was considerable disagreement among the Creamery boys with the umpire's decision at first base, with the usual outcome.

Tossman hit, to open the Gaare half of the sixth. Hertel walked. Sadecky hit again, and Weisgerber drove a line smash into right-field. ## Heidorns take 1st round title; beat CYO, 8-2

Games of July 28-Aug. 1

CYO stayed within striking distance of first place last week by beating Hoppers in a hard-fought game, 6-4. Lou Brodnan won over a pair of Hopper pitchers, Mel Bach and Dick Busse.

Bach started the game and suffered from lack of control. He allowed one hit in three innings but walked ten men. Busse finally struck out Schroeder for the third out in the third inning.

Hoppers, who had secured two runs on two hits and an error in the second, picked up one run in the fourth and one in the fifth. CYO struck back with three hits and a walk in the fifth for their two-run margin and the ball game.

Busse had two hits in three times at bat, or exactly forty percent of his team's attack. Mert Taylor had a double, the only extra-base blow for the CYO.

Heidorns Outlit

Heidorns bowed out of the second-round championship fight on Tuesday night, losing to Bensenville 9-4. For the second consecutive week a late-inning rally beat the Sweet Shop boys.

Frank Brodnan's single in the first led to a run when Kyevi threw the ball away on Meyer's grounder. The Iroquois got that back in the last of the second on a walk and a single.

In the third Kolze and Kinnaman walked and Dierking drove them in with a solid hit. Kolze opened the big fifth for Iroquois with a homer. It was followed by a walk, two singles and a double. Five runs put the game on ice.

Heidorns came back with a run in the sixth on a walk and an error and with two more in the seventh but an alert Iroquois defense stopped them.

Urik walked six men and allowed eight hits. Eickelman issued four passes and gave up five hits.

Gaares Almost Upset

Big thrill of the week for the fans was Creamery's near upset of Gaares on Wednesday night. The Creamery boys took an early one-run lead when Loddie Balek smashed a triple to left-center on a three-and-two pitch and the shortstop, drove him home with a clean single. Two strikeouts and a fly to center-field ended the rally.

The Studebakers came back into a tie when Mel Garms' easy fly ball was badly played in centerfield and went for a home run. The next three outs were easy, with a walk sandwiched among them.

Tossman opened the third with a double and remained on second while Jiran disposed easily of Hertel and Sadecky. Weisgerber's drive to the shortstop was fielded cleanly and thrown into the crowd, Tossman scoring. Taege drove Weisgerber home but Garms fled to Tossman in left.

A double by Brodnan with one out in the fifth paved the way for two Heidorns runs. Wulbecker grounded out. Meyer, after fouling several potential third strikes doubled. Milligan's single brought in the second run of the inning but H. Koelling popped to Kehe.

Sadecky walked with two out in the first of the sixth. Tossman, with a three-and-two count fouled four pitches, then hit a change-of-pace pitch to right center for a home run. The score was then 5-4.

Tossman dropped a fly ball in Heidorns' half of the sixth, and Urik singled. Doyle popped to Hertel and on Nick's low liner to right Urik was forced at second. Brodnan popped to short center. Neither team had a man on base in the seventh.

The game was the kind of struggle all the way which baseball fans love and could have gone to either team according to the way the breaks occurred.

ALSAB, NEW WONDER HORSE

Here is Alsab, the Chicago-owned favorite for the Washington Park Futurity next Saturday, August 16, with Jockey R. L. Vedder in the saddle. Winner of the Primer and Hyde Park Stakes at Arlington Park, Alsab held the Washington Park track record of 1:05 for five and one-half furlongs when he won the Washington Park Juvenile Stakes last Saturday.

Alsab, the proud possession of Mrs. Albert Sabath, is known as the bargain horse. Bought at the Saratoga sales a year ago for $700 the bay son of Good Goods - Winds Chant also won the Mayflower Stakes at Suffolk Downs and a victory in the Washington Park Futurity, expected to gross close to $50,000, will bring his earnings as a two-year-old above the $60,000 mark.

ors to Arlington suggested a saliva test for the Creamery team.

Score in 5 of 7 Innings

Benjamin Electric scored in five of the seven innings on Thursday night to beat Leos 12-7. The Barbers had three good innings but they were not big enough and not numerous enough.

Joe Rudolph had three hits in five times at bat, Drewes three in four, LaMantia and Joe Brodnan, two in two with two walks. Ed Mueller's two hits and a walk were tops for the Leo team, while his brother got two hits in two trips up.

Wilbert Becker homered with two men on in the third for his one hit of the evening. For B. E. Freer hit a home run, Stanek, Brodnan and Drewes hit doubles.

A word of praise is due to the officers and managers of the league for their new arrangements for umpiring. The results have more than justified the additional cost, chiefly because no one man ever works two games in the same week and because they are total strangers to the teams and are therefore possessed of greater authority than any local individual can exert.

Heidorns take 1st round title

The Heidorn Sweet Shop team won the first-round title Sunday night, beating CYO 8-2. It was a clear-cut victory as the winners out-hit CYO and were a superior fielding team. Steve Urik allowed only five hits by CYO and walked only two men. Lou Brodnan pitched for the losers and was put in the hole with four hits, five errors, and five runs in the first inning.

Gay and Frank Brodnan opened the game with hits. Brodnan's triple. The first of seven errors let Frank score. Wulbecker fled out deep in left field. Ray Meyer singled and went to second when Anstedt fumbled in center. Ken Koelling hit a liner at Mayerck who fumbled it for two bases. Goedke then dropped a throw at first base
